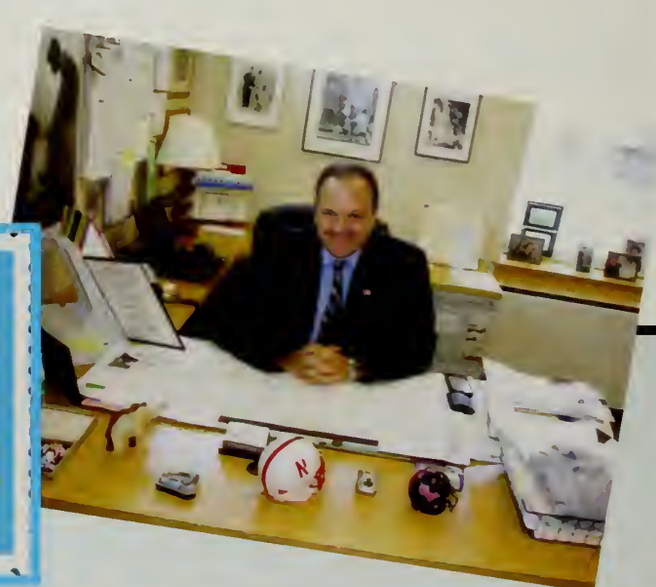
A Message From: MR. SMITH

Dear Class of 2012,

I wanted to take this opportunity to congratulate the class of 2012 on their numerous accomplishments as a student body as well as the various individual accomplishments of this very talented class. Your four years of high school have molded you into young men and women who are ready to take on the next challenges in your life. You have encountered both success and setbacks but each of these life experiences have made you stronger and even more capable of handling what is before you. Your long hours of study and dedication to your extracurricular and community activities have given you the tools to make a difference in your school and in your community. Now you have the opportunity to make a difference in a whole new community and on a much more global scale. Continue to take on new challenges with determination and confidence. Make your community and your world a better place by doing your part to help others. Westborough High School has been a wonderful place for you to grow up. Your families have supported you and your friends in so many ways. Now as you prepare to set forth a new and exciting course for your future, be grateful for what your teachers, coaches and advisors have taught you and always hold a special place for the four short years you spent as a Ranger. I am so very proud of you and I am honored to have been your Principal.

Best Wishes

John G. Smith
Principal



a note from your class officers!

Congrats Class of 2012! We did it! It has been an absolute pleasure to be able to lead such an enthusiastic, spirited and hardworking class. Thank you for all of the 2012 support. It was awesome to reach our goal: to have Senior Ball at Gillette Stadium! We have accomplished so much since our freshmen year and have really come together as one of the most unified classes to ever pass through the halls of WHS. I hope the class of 2013 is up for the challenge...they have some pretty big shoes to fill! Believe it or not, but pretty soon we'll be planning the next big thing...our class reunions! See you all in 5 years! Oh the places we'll go...

With love,

Good luck class of 2012!
Real life is a funny thing you know. I think most of us fear reaching the end of our lives and looking back regretting the moments we didn't speak up. So there is a time for silence. There is a time for waiting your turn. But if you know how you feel, and you so clearly know what you need to say you'll know it. I don't think you should wait I think you should speak now.

When I think of high school I will think of all the friends that made it unforgettable - the caring teachers, the inspiring coaches that and the loving family. I couldn't have reached for my dreams without being amazed and thankful for all I was given along the way. I have often been driven by the phrase "All it takes is all you got", but through the years I have come to realize that "All it takes is all I have been given". Thank you friends, teachers, coaches and family I owe you everything.

THE Yearbook STAFF

Ten Reasons

WHY MAKING A YEARBOOK IS LIKE HAVING A BABY

1) THE PROCESS TAKES ABOUT 9 MONTHS; IF IT TAKES ANY LONGER, IT'S VERY PAINFUL.
2) THE PROCESS IS EXCITING IN THE BEGINNING AND THE END, BUT GETS MONOTONOUS AND TIRING IN THE MIDDLE.
3) IT ALWAYS COSTS MORE THAN YOU THOUGHT.
4) PEOPLE ARE ALWAYS WILLING TO GIVE YOU ADVICE, BUT ARE NEVER WILLING TO ACTUALLY HELP OUT.
5) PEOPLE ALWAYS WANT TO KNOW HOW BIG IT'S GOING TO BE.
6) EVEN THOUGH YOU THINK YOU KNOW WHAT IT'LL LOOK LIKE, YOU'RE QUITE CURIOUS TO SEE IT WHEN IT ACTUALLY COMES OUT.
7) NO MATTER HOW MUCH YOU TALK TO SO-CALLED "EXPERTS", YOU'RE NEVER PREPARED FOR WHAT HAPPENS.
8) WHEN IT FINALLY DOES COME OUT, EVERYONE CONGRATULATES YOU AND WANTS TO SEE IT.
9) ONCE IT COMES OUT, IT'S YOURS TO KEEP. YOU CANNOT SEND IT BACK.
10) AFTER THE NEXT ONE COMES OUT, PEOPLE THINK THE NEW ONE IS CUTE AND DON'T REALLY PAY ATTENTION TO THE OLD ONE.

A Note from the Editors

Dear classmates, faculty, families and friends,

We would like to take this opportunity to explain the theme of this year's yearbook, "We all Have Something". We got the idea at yearbook camp over the summer (yes, there is such thing as yearbook camp!) and were so excited for the school year to start so we could begin developing our vision into a reality. Not only does the theme correspond to the initials of our school (We all Have Something) but it also embodies the spirit of WHS in one short phrase. At WHS, every student contributes to the school in their own way. Whether it's being involved in student council, setting a new school record for the mile in track, recycling every Wednesday after school for E-Club, starring in the spring musical or working behind the scenes as a part of the Tech Crew, we each have something to contribute to the quality of life here at WHS. The best part is that even though we all do different things, we all support each other and acknowledge others' accomplishments.

Making a yearbook is a TON of work! There is so much more to it than designing pages and taking pictures. It has definitely been a learning experience. We basically run a small business and we could not have done all of it without the help of our wonderful advisor, Mrs. Costa, and our yearbook representative, Susan Happel. The smiles and laughter that come from this one book filled with all of our high school memories make it TOTALLY worth it.

We hope you appreciate this BEAUTIFUL book. Enjoy!

Love,

The homecoming dance was held on Friday, October 14th, 2011. Emily Dwyer and Tyler Haberkorn represented the senior class as homecoming King and Queen and shared a romantic dance. A candy themed dance calls for many creative costumes including Nerds, Candy Corns, Skittles and Junior Mints. “I'll Take You To the Candy Shop” by 50 Cent and “I Want Candy” by Aaron Carter were song selections by the StuCo DJ table. An amazing time had by all before the homecoming football game and festival.

It is still best to be honest and truthful;
To make the most of what we have;
To be happy with the simple pleasures;
And have courage when things go wrong."

And let others do for you
May you build a ladder to the stars
And climb on every rung
May you stay forever young

May you grow up to be righteous
May you grow up to be true
May you always know the truth
And see the lights surrounding you
May you always be courageous
Stand upright and be strong
May you stay forever young

May your hands always be busy
May your feet always be swift
May you have a strong foundation
